Dear Mr. Casey:

Thank you very much for your letter of November 12, in which you declined our invitation to speak at Yale this year. We understand your predicament; between your official duties and your travel plans, you are obviously kept very busy.

It is for this reason that we extend a second invitation to you to speak at one of our colloquiums at any time in the next two years (fall 1986 through spring 1988). Hopefully this advance notice will prevent any more scheduling conflicts.

If you are interested, please respond at your earliest convenience. I may be reached at the Forum's mailing address, or at (203) 436-6655.

Thank you once again.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Wong:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey or his representative to speak at one of the Yale Undergraduate Legal Forum colloquiums at Yale University sometime this academic year.

Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to tentative travel plans and a full schedule of official duties, he must decline the honor. Moreover, we regret that we are unable to send anyone from our Office of General Counsel.

Thank you for your interest.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Yale Undergraduate Legal Forum is a student-run organization that sponsors colloquiums on legal topics. These events feature a variety of speakers--lawyers, judges, government officials, and legal scholars--and they have become very popular on campus. Many of our members plan to attend law school; others are simply interested in legal issues. All enjoy the opportunity to talk with speakers from the legal community.

We would like to invite you or a representative from your organization to speak at one of our colloquiums this year. If you are interested, please reply at your earliest convenience. Arrangements for a date, topic, and transportation will then be made.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
